Is pleased to invite you to the annual international conference of

The Concord Research Center for Integration of International Law in Israel:

FREEDOM FROM RELIGION: INTERNATIONAL, CONSTITUTIONAL AND THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES

DECEMBER 11TH - 13TH, 2011

The conference will focus on the international human right to freedom of conscience as freedom from religion. This right, although included in the human rights treaties is much neglected in comparison to the right to freedom of religion. We will examine the importance of this right and will explore the way in which it is addressed in comparative constitutional law and theory, with attention to the implications regarding the constitutional system of Israel.
